Lighten your spring outlook by the switch to airy, easy-to-carry appared such as the Glen Urquhart platd business suit shown above. The feather-light father weight ten ounces to the yard. Complete the casual effect by a careful selection of related accessories; the figured foulard ite, thin broadcloth shirt, and light-construction brown shoes work a spring-tonic wonder.

In sportswear, too, the light weight is the right weight for the complete speing outfit. The par-basting golfer is sporting a checkered grey lacket and a pair of siry Orlion-onl-wood slocks. Finishing touches are the felt pork-pic hat, Oxford shirt, foulard tie, cordurory vest, and meccisin-type shoes. (Even this sports sports car follows the berezy lightweight line.)
